Br. W. ANGER SYEBLY, Assistants.

In retiring from the firm of QUARLES & Mc-CURDY I take great pleasure in resommending my late partner, Mr. B. M. QUARLES, to my friends. The pleasant business association of the past six years is severed to fill an engagement in St. Paul, Minn., where many of our hichmona friends have large interests. I respectfully solicit any business for them in that section.

has reade such rapid strides, as our Carpet De-partment. From an Infant, as it were, we have sprung up to become a great power, and these purchasing Carpets who do not give our assortient at least a glauce are in the minority. In the first place, we sell Curpets at dry-goods profits. You all know what that means. In the second place, we carry as complete a stock as any house devoting the applyos entirely to Car-pets; and, in the third pince, we have competent workmen and sewers, and can guarantee the test of wors.
